

Name: _____

Break Apart the Compound Sentences

Rewrite each of the compound sentences below into simple sentences.

1. I wanted a puppy for my birthday, but I got a game.

2. The house was white, and the barn was red.

3. Sam ran to third base, and Jack ran to second base.

4. My aunt will stay with us, or we will go to my cousin's house.

5. Sometimes it's easy to do chores, but sometimes I must work harder.

6. The movies are expensive, yet we go anyway.

7. The lion roared loudly, yet the zebra did not run away.

8. The ghost floated down the hall, and the children hid under the table.

Answers Key

Rewrite each of the compound sentences below into simple sentences.

Actual answers may vary.

1. I wanted a puppy for my birthday, but I got a game.
I wanted a puppy for my birthday. I got a game.
2. The house was white, and the barn was red.
The house was white. The barn was red.
3. Sam ran to third base, and Jack ran to second base.
Sam ran to third base. Jack ran to second base
4. My aunt will stay with us, or we will go to my cousin's house
My aunt may stay with us. We may go to my cousin's house.
5. Sometimes it's easy to do chores, but sometimes I must work harder.
Sometimes it's easy to do chores. Sometimes I must work harder.
6. The movies are expensive, yet we go anyway.
The movies are expensive. We go anyway.
7. The lion roared loudly, yet the zebra did not run away.
The lion roared loudly. The zebra did not run away.
8. The ghost floated down the hall, and the children hid under the table
The ghost floated down the hall. The children hid under the table.