

5th Grade Perfect Tenses

Name _____

Date _____

The perfect tenses of a verb use forms of the helping verb have to show action. The perfect tenses are present perfect, past perfect, and future perfect.

Present perfect tense shows action begun in past and completed in present.
Our class has picked a field trip destination.

Past perfect tense shows action begun at one point in past and completed at another point in past.
Our class had researched places for weeks.

Future perfect tense shows action begun in past or present and completed in future.
Our class will have enjoyed three trips by spring.

Underline the verb in each sentence. Write present perfect, past perfect, or future perfect to show the verb's tense.

1. Our class has planned for the field trip. _____
2. For awhile we had worried about the weather. _____
3. Some students had feared a snowstorm. _____
4. The weather station had predicted a possible storm. _____
5. Now we have received good news. _____
6. The storm will have moved away by the time of our trip. _____
7. It will have drifted out to sea. _____
8. Teyanna has created a map of our route. _____
9. Zach had checked the distance last week. _____
10. The radio station will have prepared for our visit. _____

5th Grade Perfect Tenses

Answer Key

Name _____

Date _____

The perfect tenses of a verb use forms of the helping verb have to show action. The perfect tenses are present perfect, past perfect, and future perfect.

Present perfect tense shows action begun in past and completed in present.
Our class has picked a field trip destination.

Past perfect tense shows action begun at one point in past and completed at another point in past.
Our class had researched places for weeks.

Future perfect tense shows action begun in past or present and completed in future.
Our class will have enjoyed three trips by spring.

Underline the verb in each sentence. Write present perfect, past perfect, or future perfect to show the verb's tense.

1. Our class has planned for the field trip. present perfect
2. For awhile we had worried about the weather. past perfect
3. Some students had feared a snowstorm. past perfect
4. The weather station had predicted a possible storm. past perfect
5. Now we have received good news. present perfect
6. The storm will have moved away by the time of our trip. future perfect
7. It will have drifted out to sea. future perfect
8. Teyanna has created a map of our route. present perfect
9. Zach had checked the distance last week. past perfect
10. The radio station will have prepared for our visit. future perfect