
Indefinite Pronoun

EXERCISE A: - Underline the indefinite pronouns in the following sentences.

Example 1:

- Each of the lazy days was truly satisfying. [Each refers to the word lazy days in the sentence, but it does not refer to a specific day.]
- We probably should examine both of the samples closely. [Both refers to the word samples in the sentence, but it does not refer to a specific sample.]

1. All of the crew members were very kind. [Which word refers to persons who are not specifically named?]
2. Most of the questions, in Jack's opinion, were all related to your skills.
[Which word refers to a group of things that are not specifically named?]
3. Of everything available to guests, the swimming pool was the kids favorite spot.
4. We can ask for help from anyone who come by.
5. Let's consider the opinion of others.
6. Some of the students are interested to join the festival.
7. Give that chair to somebody else needing it.
8. Shouldn't Suzy be with them already?
9. Eat something before heading out.
10. We were told to take another test.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

EXERCISE B: - For each blank in the following sentences, write an appropriate indefinite pronoun. Use a different indefinite pronoun for each sentence.

Example:

- Many of my friends like baseball. [Many is one indefinite pronoun that makes sense in this sentence.]
- Neither of the two kittens has its eyes open. [Neither is one indefinite pronoun that makes sense in this sentence.]

11. _____ of these courses has their own benefit. [Which indefinite pronoun would make sense in this sentence?]
12. Hans is engaged in _____ sport activities. [Which indefinite pronoun would make sense in this sentence?]
13. I think I'll have _____ after this one.
14. She's willing to hire _____ who have great knowledge in this field.
15. _____ of the students gave their teacher
16. _____ of the boys fell on his bike.
17. Mark said he wants to have _____ in the world.
18. Warren entered the room and greeted _____ with a smile.
19. I am waiting for _____ to inform Miss Torres about the assignment.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

20. Is there _____ you would like to recommend for the space mission?

Answer Keys:

EXERCISE A: -

1. All of the crew members were very kind.
2. Most of the questions, in Jack's opinion, were all related to your skills.
3. Of everything available to guests, the swimming pool was the kids favorite spot.
4. We can ask for help from anyone who come by.
5. Let's consider the opinion of others.
6. Some of the students are interested to join the festival.
7. Give that chair to somebody else needing it.
8. Shouldn't Suzy be with them already?
9. Eat something before heading out.
10. We were told to take another test.

EXERCISE B: -

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

(Answers will vary.)

11. Each

16. one

12. both

17. everything

13. more

18. everyone

14. anybody

19. somebody

15. Most

20. anyone