

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Mood

EXERCISE A: - On the line before each sentence, identify the mood of the underlined verb by writing IND for indicative, IMP for imperative, or SUBJ for subjunctive.

Example 1:

SUBJ 1. I wish it were real.

- _____ 1. The employee's demands for raise in their salary.
- _____ 2. Close your eyes and reflect.
- _____ 3. Store manager suggests that Mark work full time from Saturday.
- _____ 4. The admin recommended that the motion be passed immediately.
- _____ 5. Dogs like to play fetch with their owner.
- _____ 6. Please follow the signs to avoid accident.
- _____ 7. We practice our dancing skills daily to be better.
- _____ 8. There are only three months left until summer.
- _____ 9. Bring the application form in my office right away.
- _____ 10. If I were in your position, I would do the same.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

EXERCISE B: - On the line provided, write the correct form of the italicized verb given before each sentence.

Example 1:

1. know I wish I knew that before submitting my work.

11. become "I _____ a policeman after 4 years of studying criminology."
Carlo said to himself.
12. hold Yesterday, my boyfriend _____ my hand the whole day.
13. make Last week, our teachers _____ our exam week like hell.
14. tell Mom said, "last night you didn't _____ me what is the reason of your bad behaviour."
15. write Melissa _____ a love letter for Mike last October 10 for their anniversary.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Answer Keys:

EXERCISE A

1. SUBJ
2. IMP
3. SUBJ
4. SUBJ
5. IND
6. IMP
7. IND
8. IND
9. IMP
10. SUBJ

EXERCISE B

11. Became
12. Held
13. Made
14. Told
15. Wrote