

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Using Adjective Clauses

DIRECTIONS: Combine the following sets of sentences by using adjective clauses. Add commas when necessary.

EXAMPLE

Essential:	The show that I watch every day is Wheel of Fortune.
Nonessential:	Wheel of Fortune, which I watch every day, changed its background music.

1. Genevieve reads while on the train to work. She loves mystery novels. (who)

2. Armando goes to the beach with his family. His nephews seem to enjoy surfing as much as he does. (whose)

3. When I was ready to go to the show, I couldn't find the tickets. I had placed the tickets down. (where)

4. After searching for weeks, Donna finally found a telescope. She thought her mother would like it. (that)

5. In rehearsal, the conductor didn't notice our mistakes. We had thought he was detail-oriented. (whom)

6. Sebastian's daily walk is forty-five minutes. It takes him through the park by his house. (which)

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Answer Keys:

(Answers will vary. These are sample answers.)

1. Genevieve, who loves mystery novels, reads while on the train to work.
2. Armando, whose nephews seem to enjoy surfing as much as he does, goes to the beach with his family.
3. When I was ready to go to the show, I couldn't find where I had placed the tickets down.
4. After searching for weeks, Donna finally found a telescope that she thought her mother would like.
5. In rehearsal, the conductor, whom we had thought was detail-orientated, didn't notice our mistakes.
6. Sebastian's daily walk, which is forty-five minutes, takes him through the park by his house.