

Using Conjunctive Adverbs

DIRECTIONS: Combine the sentences in each of the following numbered items.

- Use a conjunctive adverb to combine each numbered pair.
- When an italicized conjunctive adverb is not provided, choose the conjunctive adverb that makes the most sense.
- Make all changes on the worksheet. Use a caret (^) to indicate where words and punctuation should be inserted.

EXAMPLE	The forecast predicts ice cold temperatures. I bundle up with a hat, scarf, and gloves. The forecast predicts ice cold temperatures; therefore, I bundle up with a hat, scarf, and gloves.
---------	--

- (1) Linguistics is the scientific study of language. (Use in fact.) This word comes from the Latin lingua, meaning tongue.
- (2) Studies show that decreasing homework leads to increased engagement. (Use indeed.) This was the case at Washington High School.
- (3) Uma won the archery contest. (Use furthermore.) She won the respect of her peers.
- (4) Enrique didn't like baseball much. He watched the game with his mom to make her happy.
- (5) She considered moving to the city. She like the quiet of the suburbs.
- (6) There was a Category 5 hurricane warning. They cancelled after school activities.
- (7) Darla forget to bring her trumpet to the band concert. She wasn't able to play in the concert.
- (8) The tree was twenty-five feet tall. It is estimated to be over two hundred years old.
- (9) My grandmother's macaroni and cheese is delicious. I love the breadcrumbs she adds to the top.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

(10) Isaac practiced his dance routine frequently. He performed it perfectly during the recital.

Answer Keys:

(Answers will vary. These are sample answers.)

- (1) Linguistics is the scientific study of language; in fact, this word comes from the Latin lingua, meaning tongue.
- (2) Studies show that decreasing homework leads to increased engagement; indeed, this was the case at Washington High School.
- (3) Uma won the archery contest; furthermore, she won the respect of her peers.
- (4) Enrique didn't like baseball much; nevertheless, he watched the game with his mom to make her happy.
- (5) She considered moving to the city; on the other hand, she like the quiet of the suburbs.
- (6) There was a Category 5 hurricane warning; consequently, they cancelled after school activities.
- (7) Darla forget to bring her trumpet to the band concert; therefore, she wasn't able to play in the concert.
- (8) The tree was twenty-five feet tall; in addition, it is estimated to be over two hundred years old.
- (9) My grandmother's macaroni and cheese is delicious; moreover, I love the breadcrumbs she adds to the top.
- (10) Isaac practiced his dance routine frequently; hence, he performed it perfectly during the recital.